DOUGLAS PARK PROGRAM DEVOTED TO GIV-ING THE POORER HORSES A CHANCE.

Deuce Wins at Long Odds-Dr. Holzberg Defeats Irrigator and Elizabeth Harwood-Fire

Threatens Plant.

Louisville, Ky., October 16.—Today's card of six races under cheap selling conditions afforded the poorer racers an opportunity to earn purses. The sport in consequence was devoid of much interest and reduced speculation considerably from the standard of previous days. The decisive beating administered several pronounced choices was felt severely by the supposed sure-thing set who make a tractice of wagering heavily on favorites for place and show. The failure of Elizabeth Harwood to hand second place was especially costly to them. The absence of good horses was responsible for reversals in many of the races, the most notable being that of Deuce, which scored easily, but over a band of less speed that the horses that beat him off in his last start. Home Run and Hughes, winners in their respective races, also showed improvement over their last races. In the closing race trainer James Blute of the W. Gerst stable attempted a betting coup with that one-time good horse Brancas, but failed by a small margin, Gild, a previous disappointment, but running to his best form today, landing the purse rather easily from Imboden and Banrida. About the worst horses stabled here started in the fourth race and it resulted in the closest finish of the afternoon, Rexall winning in the last stride after a sharp drive to wear the extreme outsider, Ardis, down.

Barney Schreiber's Dr. Holzberg, beaten handily by Alice Baird in his previous race, but interfered with, came away to an easy victory in the fifth race, for which Elizabeth Harwood was the favorite, trigator taking second place. Barney Schreiber's Dr. Mayer was plunged on to take the second race, but poor riding and a slow send-off brought about his defeat, Home Run, from W. H. Fizer's stable, taking the purse.

Most of the horsemen and race followers here will depart for Cinchmati tomorrow and Sunday to be on hand for the Latonia opening. It is predicted by Knowing ones that not over twenty-live layers will be in line on the opening day.

Jockey Heidel was fined $50 by the s cheering news to many of the horsemen in this tion.

W. J. Young will not ship anything to New York, twill turn out most of his horses at Lexington 1 await the rumored opening at Hot Springs, : S. Hawkins is another owner who has abandoned pping to California, and will remain idle for the rater part of the winter.

A miniature prairie fire which began before race threatened the destruction of Douglas Park for time, and great excitement prevailed. The fire s put out before any damage was done, race pans, stable hands and the emergency fire apparatus onging to the plant contributing.

AMERICAN HORSES LOADED FOR ENGLAND.

Colin, Ballot, Priscillian and Many Other Famous Racers Placed On the Steamer.

New York, October 16.—Between four and five-thirty o'clock this afternoon sixty-six race horses owned by James R. Keene, Harry Payne Whitney, August Belmont, Herman B. Duryea and F. R. and T. Hitchcock were loaded on the Atlantic transport line steamship Minnehala, which sails for England tomorrow at 11 a. m. Thirty men and boys, including A. J. Joyner, John Schlosser, Tom Leary and W. L. Oliver, accompanied the consignment as caretakers.

ing A. J. Joyner, John Schlosser, Tom Leary and W. L. Oliver, accompanied the consignment as caretakers.

The James R. Keene lot included Colin, Ballot, Melisande, Suffragette and Selectman. The last-mentioned pair belong to James Rowe, Mr. Keene's American trainer, but will run, barring accident, in the Epsom Derby and Oaks respectively in the colors of Mr. Keene, their former owner. Herman B. Duryea sends Mediant, Ben Ban and ten others, Mr. Belmont was represented by only Priscillian and Antaeus; Practical and Fair Play are to be shipped later on. At the last moment the Messrs. Hitch-cock decided to ship their steeplechasers, Bayonet, Hyjas, Regal Royal and Steles, Everything went on smoothly and with despatch except Field Daisy, which had to be blindfolded before he was induced to walk aboard. Mr. Joyner had nothing to say except that he regretted leaving America and hoped to get back home soon. No one knows what trainer has been engaged for the Keene horses.

The original Whitney consignment was augmented by one, Dinna Ken.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Duryea and a number of turfmen were present at the loading of the most valuable consignment of thoroughbreds ever sent away from this country.

Outside of what J. R. Keene decides to leave here, one of the chief stewards of the Jockey Club is quoted as saying that it was distressing to think that nearly every good horse is to be shipped abroad for the reason that they are practically valueless here under present and prospective conditions in racing affairs. But owners cannot be censured for sending their horses to countries where they are of some value.

The failure of J. E. Madden to ship Sir Martin and Freyette on the Minnehaba today is considered.

ing affairs. But owners cannot be censured for sending their horses to countries where they are of some value.

The failure of J. E. Madden to ship Sir Martin and Fayette on the Minnehaha today is considered significant.

Frank J. Nolan, owner of the Beverwyck Stable and Malacca, its principal steeplechaser, said today that he would send that horse to France and race him there in cross-country races next season if he made a good showing in the Champion Steeplechaser tomorrow. Should Malacca be deemed good enough for foreign campaigning, several flat racers in the stable will be sent along to keep him company.

Edward F. Hefiner acquired the good Buck Massic colt, Killcreen, from Thomas Tault today, terms thought to approximate $3,000. Killcreen defeated Practical, the Belmont two-year-old full brother to Priscillian, in his last race. There is a report that Daye Gideon is the real buyer of the youngster. He will be raced at New Orleans. J. H. McCormick, too, will probably race at the Crescent City meeting.

KEENE'S SECOND SALE IN ENGLAND.

Critics Thought Cap and Bells Filly Would Sell for the Top Price, but Were Mistaken.

Mr. James R. Keene's second consignment of year lings to the English market were sold at Newmarket October 1. They brought fairly good prices, but, as a whole, the consignment was called inferior to that sold in July for an average of $1.290, and only averaged $910, three selling for almost two-thirds of the total. Of the sale Sporting Life's commissioner said:

sold in July for an average of $1,290, and only averaged $910, three selling for almost two-thirds of the total. Of the sale Sporting Life's commissioner said:

"Like a good many other people, I thought the Cap and Bells filly would bring top price, but the fine chesimat colt by Disguise II., out of Dorset Flower, secured that honor. He is a horse of the commanding type, and there are undoubtedly great possibilities about him. His four white feet will make him easy to identify when he gets into a paddock. There was brisk competition for him from the outset. To begin with, Mr. Sydney Paget, who, I understand, Intends racing over here next year, and Mr. James de Rothschild were the bidders, but they were eventually joined by Mr. Reddington, to whom the colt was knocked down at $3,600. He is engaged in the Derby and the St. Leger.

"The filly by Star Ruby, out of Cap and Bells was benght by Mr. Houldsworth. How long it is since this honored member of the Jockey Club purchased a yearling at auction I cannot say offhand, but his excursions in this direction have been very few in recent years. It may be assumed that he was actuated by the desire to secure this grandly-bred filly for the paddock, though it is almost certain that before the time comes to retire her to the stud she will more than pay her way on the race course. The wonder is that Mr. Houldsworth had not to contend with more determined opponents Mr. James Rothschild gave \$2,550 for the bay filly by Handspring or Ben Brush, out of Lady Reel, the dam of the mighty Hamburg, which was by Hanover. $\frac{300}{125}$ LADY ISABEL PLEASES WASHINGTONIANS.

Uashington, D. C., October 16.—The gentlemen who contemplate giving a fall meeting at Benning to follow that at Baltimore received much encouragement today from several sources. Promises were made by a number of persons to lend their support and if some of the merchants and hotel proprietors fall in line it is almost a sure thing that the meeting will be given. In speaking of the plans of those interested. General W. T. Townes said: "Our only idea in giving a meeting at Benning this fall is to keep the sport alive in this section and provide some sort of entertainment for Washingtonians. We do not expect any inancial returns out of the venture and if there should happen to be any it will go into a reserve fund to be used to defray the expenses of a meeting next spring.

The attendance at Benning this afternoon was by far the largest of the meeting. There was much entusiasm manifested and those present appeared to thoroughly enjoy the sport. The result of the third race, which was won by Samuel Ross' filly. Lady Isabel, after a whipping finish with Lally, brought the crowd in the grandstand to their feet. Lady Isabel was an odds-on favorite and was ridden by the apprentice Haynes. Just as the barrier was sprung the field bunched up and Euripides collided with Lady Isabel with force enough to unseat Haynes. The lad grabbed the mare around the neck and in some manner managed to scramble back into the saddle. When Haynes got straightened up the others were rounding the first turn twenty lengths in front of him, but he set out after them and, gradually working his way up on the back-stretch and while rounding the first turn from Lady Isabel came through on the inside at this point and after a hard drive managed to straightened up the others were rounding the first turn from the first two dafter a hard drive managed to stagger in a head in front of Lally. Haynes received an ovation when he trotted the little mare back to the scales and was also complimented by the stewards.

Keen contests and spirited finishes were i

P. M. Burch will have charge of Dreamer and a number of the Duyea yearlings, while the principal members of that stable are racing abroad.

Eddie Dugan will probably ride for S. C. Hildreth in California next winter.

Trainer A. J. Joyner says that his contract with Harry Payne Whitney has expired and will not be renewed.

Ten of H. T. Oxnard's yearlings, the get of Islington, were sold at Newmarket, England, today.

P. J. Dwyer refused to discuss next season's racing prospects today. "It will be time enough after the election," he said.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Clarke, wife of the superintendent of the Sheepshead Bay race course, took place at Sheepshead Bay today. There was a big-crowd of representative turfmen at the funeral, Shilling for the California season.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At Latonia they are counting on thirty-five book nakers for the opening day and more later on.

Jimmy McLaughlin is reported to have sold his good old campaigner, Oxford, to a Virginia breeder, who will put him in the stud.

True to his declaration, Joseph L. Rhinock is said to have resigned the presidency of the Latonia Jockey Club and it was accepted.

It is reported that Joseph A. Murphy of St. Louis will be presiding judge of the projected New Orleans meeting and that Mars Cassidy will do the starting. No better selections could be made.

The stewards of the Canadian Racing Association have restored E. L. Talley and jockeys Goldstein and Mulcahy to good standing on the turf. All were suspended at the Toronto spring meeting.

Joe Stern, who was suspended last spring on account of his connection with the running of the horses Tommy Ahearn and Mrs. O'Farrell, has ar rived at Oakland, where he will make an effort to be restored to good standing.

W. Allen, steeplechase jockey riding for Gwyn Tompkins, will ride on the flat at Empire City next week. Allen weighs but 112 pounds and has been seen, on several occasions, riding in both jumping and flat races on the same day.

On Wednesday last a new steamship service be tween New York and Jamaica was inaugurated. One reason for the establishment of this service is the hope of a passenger trade by reason of winter acing at Kingston and it is thought that Americans will be good patrons of the venture.

Preston Burch, with three horses from the Chelses Stable, won three races and finished second in another at the Philadelphia meeting Wednesday. His winners were Aster d'Or, Glorious Betsy and Speculator. The latter, ridden by Master Harry Tucker, won the steeplechase after falling during the course

It is stated that $3,000,000 will be realized from the sale of the 1,500 lots into which the Brighton Beach track has been divided. The streets in the new development will be named for old racing men, Keene, Belmont, Lakeland, Dwyer, Whitney, etc. The track contains 100 acres and for thirty-three years has been used for racing.

RADIUM BEATEN IN GREAT FRENCH RACE.

The $20,000 Prix du Conseil Municipal was run at the famous Longchamps course Sunday, October 4, before an immense assemblage. Radium, was sent over from England to capture the rich event. He was a confidently supported favorite, but was beaten by something more than a half length by the French champion stayer, Binou. The latter is a remarkable race horse, indeed, for, not only did he defeat such a genuine crack as Radium. only did no defeat such a genuine crack as Radium, but carried 141 pounds to 121 on the latter, an almost incredible feat. Ten horses started in the race and its mile and a half was run in 2:34? The Prix du Conseil Municipal has been a hard race for English horses to win, even the incomparable Pretty Polly suffering defeat in this event. It has been run sixteen times and but thrice has the victor been sent across the channel, Best Man. Winkfield's Pride and Kilmarnock II. being the lucky ones.
